Barrett,

Hey there. I'm a fellow T/S blogger and friend of Allison Kilkenny's. I enjoy your T/S posts, and I just read your defense of Hastings in VF, which I thought was great. Now that T/S is shutting down, I'm looking for a place to direct my energies, and Allie suggested I contact you. I feel like you and I share a similar kind of hatred for the chattering class and the corporate media in general.

If you'd like, I can send along writing samples, but for now I just wanted to drop you a line and say 1) great piece on Hastings, and 2) I'd love to be involved in any project that puts Friedman, Krauthammer, Brooks, et al in its sight lines.
